

WILLS & ESTATE PLANNING

Why You Should Make a Will

AND UNDERSTAND THE LAW OF INTESTACY

Plan today. Protect tomorrow.

A Will ensures your wishes are followed and your loved ones are protected.

Without a Will, the law decides for you.

WHY YOU SHOULD MAKE A WILL

1. YOU STAY IN CONTROL

You choose who inherits your money, property and possessions – not the law.

2. PROTECT THE PEOPLE YOU LOVE

Provide for your partner, children, family and even pets in the way you want.

3. PROTECT YOUR HOME

You decide who inherits your home and help your loved ones avoid disputes.

4. MINIMISE TAX WHERE POSSIBLE

Careful planning in your Will may help reduce Inheritance Tax and protect your estate.

5. AVOID FAMILY DISPUTES AND UNCERTAINTY

A clear Will reduces the risk of conflict and provides peace of mind for your family.

6. YOU CAN UPDATE IT

Life changes – and so can your Will. You can update it at any time to reflect your circumstances.

WHAT HAPPENS IF YOU DON'T? THE LAW OF INTESTACY

If you die without a valid Will, your estate is distributed according to strict legal rules. This is called intestacy.

THE BASIC RULES (ENGLAND & WALES)

The law follows a set order of priority:

1

MARRIED OR IN A CIVIL PARTNERSHIP

If you are married or in a civil partnership and have no children, everything goes to your spouse or civil partner.

2

SPOUSE/CIVIL PARTNER AND CHILDREN

If you have a spouse/civil partner and children, your spouse/civil partner receives the first £322,000 (including personal belongings). The rest is shared equally between them and your children.

3

CHILDREN ONLY

If you have children but no spouse/civil partner, your estate is divided equally between your children.

4

PARENTS

If you have no children, your estate goes to your parents equally.

5

BROTHERS AND SISTERS

If you have no parents, your estate goes to your siblings equally.

6

MORE DISTANT RELATIVES

If no close relatives are found, your estate passes to more distant relatives.

7

NO RELATIVES

If no relatives can be found, your estate passes to the Crown (Bona Vacantia).

IMPORTANT TO KNOW

Unmarried partners have no automatic right to inherit. Business partners, stepchildren and Carers are also not entitled to anything under intestacy rules.
