

Health & Welfare LPA

EXPLAINED

Giving someone you trust a voice in your care.

A Health and Welfare Lasting Power of Attorney lets someone you trust make decisions about your day-to-day care and medical treatment if you're ever unable to decide for yourself.

WHAT IT COVERS

Medical treatment

Decisions about care and treatment options, made in your best interests.

Where you live

Whether you remain at home or move into residential or nursing care.

Daily routine & care

Diet, dress, and day-to-day routine, reflecting your usual preferences.

Life-sustaining treatment

Only if you specifically give your attorney this authority in the LPA.

WHEN CAN IT BE USED?

Unlike a Property & Financial Affairs LPA, a Health and Welfare LPA can only be used once you have lost the mental capacity to make these decisions yourself.

CHOOSING YOUR ATTORNEY

SOMEONE YOU TRUST

A spouse, partner, adult child or close friend

TALK IT THROUGH

Make sure they understand what's involved

MORE THAN ONE

You can appoint joint or backup attorneys

Peace of mind, whatever happens.
