

Property & Financial

AFFAIRS LPA EXPLAINED

Keeping your finances in safe hands.

A Property and Financial Affairs Lasting Power of Attorney lets someone you trust manage your money and property — either alongside you now, or on your behalf if you're ever unable to.

WHAT IT COVERS

Bank & savings accounts

Managing day-to-day banking and accessing savings on your behalf.

Paying bills

Keeping household bills, care costs and other outgoings up to date.

Property & investments

Buying, selling or managing property, and overseeing investments.

Pensions & benefits

Managing pension income and claiming any entitled benefits.

WHEN CAN IT BE USED?

With your permission, a Property & Financial Affairs LPA can be used while you still have mental capacity — for convenience — or it can be used once you lose capacity. This is a key difference from a Health & Welfare LPA.

PROTECTS YOUR FINANCES

If you're ever unable to manage them yourself

AVOIDS DELAY

No need for a Court of Protection application

YOUR CHOICE

You choose exactly who is trusted with this role

Protecting what you've worked hard for.
